PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

SAVE OUR RIVERS BALL

Rivers connect people and places, inspiring and enabling diverse cultural beliefs, social values and economies. We desire rivers to be healthy, to support lifestyles and ultimately to be resilient. But, most of our world's rivers are fragmented and degraded, some of which are already in a state of crisis and continuing to decline. Global change continues to put pressure on these critical resources, threatening not only water security, but also our food security, livelihoods and lifestyles.

Funds from the Save Our Rivers Ball will contribute to putting a stop to this rapid decline by implementing the Resilient Rivers Blueprint in a developing country. This innovative resilience framework will see tangible changes in the way the river basin is managed, setting the river on a journey towards resilience and ensuring the river is sustainable, vibrant and healthy for future generations. The Inaugural Save our Rivers Ball will be the 23rd International Rivers symposium Gala Dinner on 10th November.

Guests to the inaugural Save our Rivers Ball will be treated to:

- A prominent Indigenous keynote speaker to kick off the evening
- International entertainment, live-streamed from around the world
- The opportunity to win from a range of fabulous prizes as part of the silent auction or the infamous prize wall on the evening
- And an unforgettable dining experience in Brisbane's most iconic heritage-listed building, Customs House.
